Q5 These are my suggestions to further increase parental engagement

1	parents need to feel they are listened to and I am sorry but I do not feel this is the case when my child was badly bullied you tried sweeping it under the carpet and when I raise concerns that your sixth form application is all for high grade students and not for the low grade I was fobbed off even though I sat there for 40 minutes at parents evening listening to the sixth form teachers saying "oh we can't wait for you to join us " or "you need to sort something else because your not going to get in". I'm sorry but sitting there that night it didn't take a brain surgeon to see the difference I found it insulting to the children who could hear this for themselves ,How is that motivational it seemed more like soul destroying and I was disgusted	4/28/2017 12:45 PM
2	I have previously offered to help with fundraising events but either I have had no communication back or it has been on the day when it is too late to organize cover for other commitments. I think people don't always want to commit but if they are able to help for a couple of hours or for one off occasions sometimes this is more appealing to them. Therefore probably better organization and communication may help.	4/28/2017 5:36 AM
3	Emails of particular issues concernes or well doings of students as well as homework being set etc would be useful	4/28/2017 3:46 AM
4	I sometimes feel we've been 'left out' of some events because they're really short notice or even my daughter wasn't given enough information prior to it.	4/27/2017 6:58 AM
5	Newsletters and events are already very good	4/26/2017 12:55 PM
6	Form tutors present at parent meetings Parent meetings as well as reports (or instead of)	4/26/2017 11:39 AM
7	Please create a facebook page with constant information where all parents can have access and share opinions and have follow ups of activities etc with constant information.	4/26/2017 9:50 AM
8	Emails or some form of communication from teachers as to how your child's progressing	4/26/2017 8:44 AM

Q6 Any other ideas on how the PVT could represent you better, as parents?

1	show that all children matter no matter what their ability as it seems ok to take these children on to get the extra funds they come with but for school statistics you would rather they weren't there	4/28/2017 8:45 PM
2	Nope	4/28/2017 11:46 AM
3	Perhaps they could engage at parent teacher meetings after parents have had all their teacher appointments.....or have a notice board up in the foyer area on those nights detailing what they do and if they need help from more parents.	4/27/2017 12:52 PM
