

18 March 2020

Dear Parent/Carer,

Following the announcement from the Prime Minister and Education Secretary tonight. I would like to confirm the arrangements for the next couple of days.

Thursday 19th March:

- Year 9 will continue to remain at home tomorrow but all other students will be expected to be in the Academy for normal lessons if you deem it is appropriate for them to do so. We are only able to continue operating owing to the flexibility of staff covering colleague's lessons, therefore, please bear with us on any delay in staff responses to your communications

Friday 20th March:

- Details will follow tomorrow regarding Friday 20th March. Key worker's children and vulnerable groups will be contacted once we receive further guidance from the Government

Exams:

- In light of the communication regarding the cancellation/postponement of examinations, all weekend revision sessions will be cancelled for the foreseeable future. Please be assured that the Academy will do all it can to ensure that your child's hard work and commitment are reflected accurately in the cancelled exam process as it evolves.

A further email will be sent tomorrow which will outline additional information on homeworking, Show My Homework submissions and safeguarding.

Thank you for your continued support and understanding.
