Dear Parent/Carer,

Re: Year 11 Preparing for Success Evening – Wednesday 5 February 6:00pm-7:30pm

We are delighted to invite you and your child to a Year 11 Preparing for Success evening at The Bourne Academy on Wednesday 5 February from 6:00pm-7:30pm. This is an evening which will focus on how you can support your child in the lead up to and during the GCSE exam season.

The evening will consist of:

- Important information regarding exams, dates, revision sessions and exam expectations
- Subject specialist talks for core subjects around revision specific techniques and resources
- Revision resources for core subjects will be provided at the event
- A workshop will be delivered by our partners at Elevate Education, demonstrating key revision techniques that students can use and ways to support your child with revision.

This is an important event which can be critical to help you understand the way in which you can support your child to success in the upcoming exams. The information and resources you will receive on the evening of the event will help your child in their journey to accomplishment.

This event is aimed at parents/carers, however, students are more than welcome to attend the event as well.

If you have any questions regarding the evening, please do not hesitate to contact me via the details below. I would be most grateful if you could complete and return the following form, stating whether you will be attending the evening.

We look forward to welcoming you on 5th February.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs T Deane
