

GOLD ARTS AWARD AS LEVEL (16 UCAS POINTS)

Gold Arts Award develops creativity, communication, planning, teamwork and leadership skills. The award is also recognised on the UCAS Tariff. If you have an interest in Dance, Drama, Music, Art, Photography and Media then Arts Award would be suitable for you.

You do not have to study Performing Arts to take this qualification.

Units include:

Gold has two units:

Unit 1: Personal Arts Development

Unit 2: Arts Project Leadership.

How it's assessed?

You will be timetabled two hours a week with a Performing Arts teacher to plan and organise an Arts event through Media, Art, Photography, Dance, Drama and Music. This course will be completed in one year and can be taken in Year 12 or 13. At the end of the course you will need to provide a portfolio of your research and evidence of the event you lead and organise.

What could this qualification lead to?

Employers, universities and colleges know that Arts Award is a qualification that shows young people's level of commitment and progress in the arts, and in developing new skills.
