Appendix 3

Suggested wording for invigilators' announcements at the beginning of written examinations

Centres may wish to laminate copies of this announcement or alternatively digitally record it. If using a digital recording centres must consider alternative means of communication for candidates with a Hearing Impairment.

	You must now follow the regulations of the examination.
2.	Only material listed on the question paper is allowed in the exam room. You must not have on or near you any other material.
3.	Check your pockets now. Check for things such as notes, books, papers, iPods, mobile phones and smartwatches. If you have any unauthorised items in your possession, you must hand them in to an invigilator now. Failure to do so may lead to disqualification.
4.	If you are wearing a wrist watch, remove it and place it on your desk.
5.	(For examinations with books that are allowed, add: check that no notes or papers have accidentally been left inside any book you are allowed to have in the examination room and that you have the correct edition of the allowed set text(s).)
6.	(For examinations where a calculator is allowed, add: make sure that the lid, case, or cover of your calculator does not have printed formulae or instructions and that you have cleared anything stored in the memory.)
7.	Check that you have been given the correct paper for the day, date, time, subject, unit/component and tier.
8.	Fill in all the details needed on the front of your answer book (or question paper) in black ink. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use.
	Pause to allow time for candidates to fill in the details
9.	Read the instructions on the front of the question paper. (You may read these out to the candidates, if required.)
10.	Check that you have all the materials you need for the exam.
