Dear Parents/Carers and Year 11 students,

Well done!

After re-launching our remote learning this week, we would like to congratulate the overwhelming majority of students on their attitude to learning and for completing their work. Our teachers are working really hard increasing the number of live lessons for students and we have been impressed with engagement and effort of nearly all students.

Behaviour concerns

Disappointingly however, we have had a few behaviour concerns where students have not followed the Academy behaviour policy and disrupted the learning in the lesson. This is not acceptable.

Please can you read protocols for remote learning (please find attached) to remind your child of the expectations. We expect that students treat a live lesson like a face-to-face lesson following the Academy behaviour policy. Students who fail to comply will no longer receive live lessons and will have to study via remote learning instead. This may have a negative consequence on any assessments which may follow to replace GCSE examinations.

Please keep up the hard work.
