

8 September 2021

Dear Parents/Carers,

Below is a table of additional learning and catch-up sessions for Year 11 this year. These sessions will commence the week starting Monday 13th September.

Students who require catch up sessions or additional learning will be invited to attend. These sessions are targeted based on student need and are designed to support students maximise their progress. If your child has been advised to attend any of these sessions, we kindly ask for your help encouraging them to attend. Attending these sessions, when invited, will help give your child the best opportunity to prepare for upcoming Year 11 exams.
